

Morey Herskovic is a 1974 Graduate of the Detroit College of Law. Since his second year of Law School, he has been actively involved in the representation of people who have been injured by negligent acts of manufacturers, employers, individuals and health care professional. Over the past 32 years, he has successfully litigated cases throughout the state of Michigan. During his years of practice he has developed a reputation in the legal community as an aggressive, reasonable client advocate.

Because of his reputation and success, he had been asked to serve as a Case Evaluator and Mediator by the Courts of Macomb, Wayne and Oakland Counties. He has also been asked by the Macomb County Bench to sit on various committees involved in alternative dispute resolution programs.

Mr. Herskovic handles all forms of personal injury, but spends most of his professional time representing clients who have been injured by professional health care providers, and the negligent operators of trucks and other motor vehicles.

Mr. Herskovic's professional affiliations include the State Bar of Michigan, the Bar Associations of Oakland, Macomb and Wayne Counties, the American Arbitration Association, and the Association of Trial Lawyers of America. He is also a sustaining member of the Michigan Trial Lawyers Association.
